Jacob E. Chew

Your support will be appreciated.

A MAN WITH A POLITICAL MESSAGE FOR THE PEOPLE

WILLIAM H. HILL

Candidate for the Republican Nomination for United States Senator August 29th.

William H. Hill, of Detroit, who has tossed his hat into the ring for the nomination for United States Senator from Michigan on the Republican ticket, has a political message for the people that it would be well to heed.

Mr. Hill's long experience in the administration of large business affairs has given him a new conception of the viewpoint and the duties of office.

A close study of government affairs has convinced him that there is but one course to pursue in a Federal office. That is, to base every act on the fact that running a government is a business proposition for business men of experience and judgment.

He believes that the government of the United States should be regarded as a great corporation in which the 100,000,000 people of this country are the stockholders; and that the Senate and the House of Representatives constitute the "Board of Directors" of this corporation.

He believes that the members of the "board" should represent all the people all the time and not a favored few; and that the people should always be able to tell where their "directors" stand.

He asked: "Have the people of Michigan, the past few years, been able to tell where their senators stood, or where to find them?"

Mr. Hill is well fitted for the office he seeks and to realize his conception of its duties. Years of arduous training in the business world, wide travel in this and foreign countries and close study of history and government have given him exceptional equipment for the task. Thirty-one years of his life have been spent in Detroit where he is a successful manufacturing druggist, conducting one of the largest concerns of its kind in the country. A Good Platform to Stand On—to Act On.

Here are the all-inclusive and progressive principles on which William H. Hill is basing his campaign:

100% Americanism and national security.
Improvement of labor conditions.
Protection of women and children.
Conservation of national resources.
A stable foundation for honorable enterprise.
Rescuing commerce from uncertainty.

Establishing a non-partisan tariff commission whose work shall be conducted on scientific and efficient lines.

Mr. Hill urges you to come out at the primaries August 29th. It is only by exercising your privileges at the Primaries that you can secure a new deal. Put an X before the name of William H. Hill August 29th.

FLASHES FROM HUGHES' DETROIT TALKS.

AMERICAN RIGHTS.

"No one could successfully present to an American audience that an American citizen's rights stopped with the coast line."

"There is not a particle of militarism in my composition, but there is Americanism in its place, and if elected, I am going to see that American rights are protected."

LABOR.

"The working man is not asking anything he should not have. All he wants is a square deal."

"No such thing as prosperity exists for just one class in America, unless it exists for all."

"The Republican party does not stand for the prosperity produced by the war, but for a prosperity produced by sound American policies and these are what we propose to have."

PREPAREDNESS.

"Do not let us get this country into a low patriotic plane so that we are content with disesteem, with the scoff of the world."

"I am an American citizen, ought to be the proudest title in the world."

CIVIL SERVICE.

"We had in the coast and geodetic survey an eminent scientist. He was displaced to make room for an excellent stock breeder."

"It is the most unworthy thing an administration can do to take public business and pay political debts with it."

BEST EVIDENCE.

New York "World" accuses Mr. Hughes of being pro-German.

"The Fatherland," the organ of those who would have the United States violate its neutrality for Germany's benefit, asks Mr. Hughes ten questions which are designed to carry the accusation that he is pro-British.

These directly conflicting charges against him will be regarded as the best evidence that he is just plain American, without bias toward either side.—Albany Journal.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HUGHES' ADDRESS IN CHICAGO

"As I was one hundred per cent. Judge I became one hundred per cent. candidate."

"The most serious charge against the present administration is putting incompetent men into important positions."

"I propose that when a man goes to represent the American people he shall be looked upon with respect and esteem."

"Nobody has the right to pay political debts with the good name and the honor of the United States."

"I propose to have no more 'kiss me and I'll kiss you' appropriations in Congress."

Democrats who harbored hopes that Josephus would catch the virus from the Bryan and Garrison resignations are still nursing their disappointment. Nothing remains for them but to resign to a realization that Josephus will not resign.

President Wilson is now anxious to have it thought that there was no withdrawal of troops from Mexico at the request of Carranza. Why not go one better and declare that we never had any troops in Mexico to withdraw?

CHARLES E. HUGHES.

Fred H. White for Representative

In an interview with Fred H. White, candidate for the nomination of representative in the Charlevoix District, he has the following to say regarding the big issues that must be faced by the new house and senate the coming term:

"The question of taxation has disturbed the minds of our greatest men for centuries. Politicians and seekers after office during all time have been promising less taxes but every year the figures on the tax receipt have shown larger denominations. State taxes in Michigan have shown an enormous increase in the last few years. The causes seem to be many but to my mind the principal cause is the system of handling the appropriations. The semi-annual appropriation bill passed by the legislature is the pork barrel of the state. Every senator and member of the house of representatives who happens to have a public institution in his district considers it a great achievement to get a large slice of this appropriation for his home institution. All the fellows who want something get together, then the log rolling begins and they put it over. The taxpayer holds the bag and pays the bills. The finance committee is helpless, the governor is helpless for the reason that the 'porkers' have the votes."

"In my opinion the only way to break up the pork barrel legislation is to change the system of appropriations. In my opinion a central board of control will simply add another lot of salaried officers to the now over-burdened state pay roll and the small saving that they might bring about would be spent many times over in additional expenses. I am in favor of the state budget system. The best minds of the state favor it. The great newspapers favor it, the business men and farmer organizations platform favors it and I am sure that thousands of dollars in useless expense may be saved to the taxpayer and the sessions of the legislature materially shortened if this system were adopted."

"The state of Michigan has a constantly growing family. Each year finds us the guardians of more unfortunates and I would be the last man in the state to deny these less fortunate brothers, sisters and children of ours the slightest comfort, but on the other hand there are thousands of our citizens who are struggling to support and educate their families and who are finding the burden heavier than they can bear and unless some change is made in our present system of taxation ruin will stare these members and their families in the face."

"I stand for the square deal for everybody, the farmer, the merchant, the banker, the small business man, the laborer and the humblest citizen wherever he may be, and upon this platform I want not only to be elected, but to also stand after elected, and I promise the voters of Charlevoix District the very best service I am capable of giving during my term of office and my only ambition is to serve them faithfully and well."

Mr. White has resided on a farm near Ironport for the past ten years. Prior to coming to Charlevoix he lived in Monroe county, where he served three years in the United States mail service. While a resident there he was a member of Co. G, 4th regiment, and upon his departure received an honorable discharge. He is well acquainted in the county, has always been a republican, and if elected will serve the district to the best of his ability.

Money talks, but it doesn't say half as much as the wife of a man who declines to give up.

Opportunity likes to knock at the door of the man who has a little cash saved up for a rainy day.
